

XM Radio is the future. You inhibit its ability by restricting its local content. There really is no difference. Satelite TV provides local content without a problem why restrice satlite radio. Consumers actually want local content. We miss local content. XM Radio is taking the step in the right direction. Please support them.